

At RAK Studios in London working on a secret project

Thursday, 12 December 2013 16:06 - Last Updated Tuesday, 07 January 2014 18:40

Matt's been recording at RAK Studios this week. As usual, the project is rather hush hush until Matt decides to clue us in to the particulars of his most recent studio sessions.

Situated just north of Regent's Park in London, RAK Studios were established in 1976 by music legend Mickie Most. For over three decades a bevy of musicians have recorded at RAK including Sir Paul McCartney, Roger Daltry (is he a Sir)?, Arctic Monkeys, Radiohead, Primal Scream, Adele, The Cure and Simply Red - just to name a few.

Matt is undoubtedly soaking up a lot of history as he plays guitar on a new "mystery" project!

